The Latest News Telegraph to the N. Y. San. ASE OF JEFF. DAVIS. ogramme For His Release. 50,000 Bail Money Ready. ME LATE FENIAN WAR! ttles and Rumors of Battles. E JIG ABOUT DANCED OUT. rching Home From the Border TER EUROPEAN NEWS.

ERMAN WAR QUESTION. ter Prespects of Peace. E ENGLISH MONEY PANIC. o More Henvy Pailures. cellaneous and Local News. NDERPEST IN THIS CITY. ARNING TO BEEF-EATERS Fenians And Their Movements.

EST CHOLERA REPORTS Another Case Up-Town. dec. &c.

E EOVS STILL HOPEFUL.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 10. ramoved last night that Jefferson Davis had was to be, builted, but the report could not trace f to a respectable source. Today, how-is repeated; and the names of Horace Greerama select and Horace F. Clark, of New several others are mentioned in that con-It is certain they are now in Washington. least one of them has been in nearch of rwood, who arrived here several days thus not become publicly known who her offind him has been successful. Judge Tale a District Judge of the Circuit preceal will be made to both, to act concurthe matter of ball, that five rentlemen are that themselves in the sum of fifty thouse each of his opposition at the next term of in K camoon, defined havis is held for the analysis of his tree supposed. A writer habitat corpus, if you a bring him under the control of the some bring him chart the correct from alliary cancel. In this the government timerice, as it would then be a purely justice, leaving the Court to determine the strength of the control of the control of the first him to find the side of the control of the con

NGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. Thirty-Sinth Session. House of Representatives

e Speaker presented a the Secretary of the Treasury, transmit ement of the amount paid for salary and the members of the thirt eighth Conth was referred to the Committee on Apas. The inflease paid to Sensiors was and the salary 4200.728; total, $423,836.

the people accept the arostrament of faith; will support emancipation and freedman, and endorse the President's tumpting to betray the Constitution, and orth Carolina Convention.

N.C., ITME 9.—The Convention to-day he discussion of the State constitution, n of dustices of the Peace, intherto belie Legislature has been given to the e number of Jostices, necessions unserviced. A motion to adjust n on a litth inst., was referred to a Special Fires.

148

nt,

nd

Hires.

His, June 9.—A destructive fire broke a morning on the corner of 25th and rects, on the school kill. Denne's wool-school and printing outen and woolen and printing outen and woolen because with the service mills were school, with its partially insured in the service first many and companies.

new England Companies.

JUNE 9.—The buildings Nos. 189

a sic: stre t, were dearroyed by fire the heaviest losers are the Pennsyi-pany, $50,000; Russell Broners gro-and Hall, Kimbark & Co., $25,000.

square, on what is called the "Old Mill Pond Property," were burned, rendering houseless sixty-one fathiles, embracing some five hundred person, or according this. Several scene were injured, by none seriously. The loss is essumated at 20,000, which is supposed to be insured; but most or the poor occupants of the tenements lose all their functions.

FENIA.

End of the Invasion of Canada—The "Right Wing" safe Back Again—Despair of the Lenders—Arrest of ten. Spear—Procla-mation of Gen. Mende—Free Transpor-tation Offered the Fenians, &c., &c. The dispatches and telegrams of Saturday, from various parts of the frontier, go to show that the Fenian invasion of Canada is at an end. The "right wing" of the Fenian army, numbering some 2,000 men, under Gen. Spear, having crossed the frontier on Friday morning, and marched some three miles. went into camp. "Going into camp" consisted of the men creeping into corners of fences, under bushes, and grouping around barns and sheds, for they had notenes, and were obliged to do the best they could under the circumstances. The men accomed under no discipline, and wandered away in separate under no discipline, and wandered away in separate under no discipline, and wandered away in separate under the property of the propert they could under the circumstances. The men scemed under no discipline, and wandered away in Disparches from Malone, N. Y., June 9th, state that the excitement was settling down in that city On Friday night General Meade issued the following

On Friday high General Meade issued the following proclamation:

All persons assembled at this place, in connection with, and in aid of the Fenian organization, for the purpose of invading Caneda, are hereby ordered, in compliance with the President's proclamation, to deast from their enterprise and disband. The men of the expeditionary lorce will, on application to the efficer in cormand of the United states forces, on giving their names and residences, and swistying him that they are unable to provide their own transportation, be provided with transportation to their homes; and all officers below the rank of field efficers, who are unable to provide their own transportation, to styling their parole to abandon the enter prize and return to their homes. Officers above the rank of field officers, who are unable to provide their own it is the styling the descrimination of the United States of the dofficers in the contrality, and the most infection measures have been taken to prevent a ingent measures have been taken to prevent a consent trust that these liberal offers will have the effect of causing the expedition, now hopeless, to be quitely and peaceably abandoned; and he trusts that at the contral trust that these interal offers will have the effect of causing the expedition, now hopeless, to be quitely and peaceably abandoned; and he trusts that at the resident is proclam ution and of this, which if not an omptly obeyed, a sufficient force will be hought to bear to compet observer.

Giveney.

Given a number of Fenians accepted the terms

Quite a number of Feniaus accepted the terms

Quite a number of Fenians secepted the terms and the salary $129.75%; total, $428.836, and the salary $111.94%; total, $1404.160. Sandar received for thickes and the salary $111.94%; total, $1404.160, sandar received for thickes $14.95%; total, $14.95%;

Ogdensburg telegrams of Saturday state that Fe-plan matters were taming down, but that a bad feel ing was springing up between the people on the op posite shores of the St. Lawrence. The America posite shores of the St. Lawrence. The American sloop Creole, Capt. Dority, was fired upon from the Canada shore while lying at anchor a short distance above Blockville, on Thursday night. The night was foggy, and Capt. Bority hove to and let go his anchor. In a short time he was saluted with a volley or side arms. He at once lowered his small boat and hurried salore, where he found a small deachment or Canadian volunteers in a slightly inebristed condition. They had taken the Creole for a Fenian expedition. Friday night the American schooner Billiow. Capt. Reynolds, bound down the St. Lawrence, was halled while passing Rockville, and ordered that his was an American vessel, bound for Ogdensturgh, whether he was de-ermined to proceed, and if they fired they midst take the consequences. He was no further molested. The American no further molested.

A dispatch received from Montreal staed that the Habeas Corpus has been suspended, and martial law proclaimed to take effect on Monday, when the infuriated Canucks will take veneance on all persons who may be unfortunate enough to be suspected with who may be unfortunate enough to be suspected with Fenianism.

The U.S. Marshai at Ogdensburg has information of the transportation through the interfer of the country of ten wagons loaded with ammunition and he had sent out a torce of men to intercept them.

The Fenians of Buffalo are said to number about 3,000, and a number of them have applied to Gen. Barry for transportation home, and Gen. Barry has E 10.—A most destructive fire broke love twelve o'clock last night in the sin attrect, in Charlestown, used as a shactory. All the buildings in the portation it is thought they will never get home, as they are not allowed to travel by road. The balance of the Fellish officers alreated were released from custody on Friday on giving ball in $3,000

The Boston HERALD of Saturday publishes the following dispatch from Brig. Gen. Mahan.

Pigeon Hitt, C. C., JUNE 9 .- We are in the enemy's country.

Pigeon Hill. C. C., dust s.

The green fiss waves defiantly.

We have captured Pigeon Hill. St. Armand Centre. Sisb City, and the strictable colors.

We are rosely to advence.

Hurry up the ammunition.

Victory or death:

Growlers and cowards have gone to the rear.

They will talk about our position but don't mind the them. The tried men of nerve are at the front. Last Evening's Dispatches.

MALONE, N. Y., JUNE 9TH.—General Meade and his proclamation to the Fenians here has not had the effect intended. 273 of them have accepted the offer of free transportation to their homes, and a port'on of them have departed. The captured office:s are yet in arrest. They are paroled nightly, however, and board at the peat hole in the place. They have an examination before Commissioner Charles O. Tappin on Monday, when Chas. O'Connor and Judge Daley will appear as their counsel. It is reported also that Ben. Butler has offered his services District-Attorney Dart is here for the Government. Sympathy for the Fenians here is very strong among the people of Malone. Delegations of the first 1. dies of the place have been from house to house to-day gathering bread for the Irish volunteers. Coi. C. C. Levis, late of the rebel army, Adjutant-General of the Irish army, is accused by the Fenians as the cause of the partial failure of this movement. They beheve he has been in communication with the Cana. dian and the United States authorities.

MALONE, N. Y., JUSE 10.—General Meade left for St. Albans at 3 o'clock to day. The prisoners are still in custody up to this time. Two hundred and fifty Fenians have left, or signified their intentions to do so. The ladies of Malone have formed a com mittee, and are at present making extensive preparations for a grand dinner to be given to the Fonians to-morrow. Everything is quiet.

It was reported that Colonel Scanlan's regiment of Fenians and a detachment of British cavalry had an Fenians and a detachment of British cavairy had an engagement near Pigeon Hill, Canada, Friday. The Fenians dispersed the British, and captured one hundred horses, which were subsequently restored to their owners. Three Fenians were wounded, one British trooper was killed and three British flags were captured. A force of Fenians also entered the Custom Heure at Freiigsburgh, Canada, and seized all the official papers. A British flaw was captured, and hung, Union down, in the Fenian headquarters. More British troops are on the way to the frontier to meet the invader.

B. Albana, June 9th.—Goneral Meade was serended to-night at the Welden House, by the hand of add to-night at the Welden House, by the hand of aded to-night at the Welden Flouve, by the band of the Third Regiment. In response to the call, General Meade complimented Vermont soldiers for heroic conduct at the battle of Gentysburg. Referring to the present revolution, he said he was glad to find that the clouds had passed away, and the sun of peace that the clouds had passed awar, and the sun of peace and good order again shone forth. However much sympathy he had for the cause in which a large number of his heavers had been ensuged, and however much we had cause to retailate upon any other nation for want of faith and fidelity to neutrality laws, we should remember as American citizens that it is the part of wisdom and good policy to de unto others as we would have others do unto no. (App.) For himself he had at this time but one duty to perform, and that was to see that the laws of the United States were faithfully executed, and that he should do at all and every hazard.

General Sweeney was confined in a room instabove.

General Sweeney was confined in a room just above General Mende's during the serenade. He made no

Gen. Sweeney and Col. Mechan were paroled this norning by Gen. Meade, to await the action of the civil anthorities, ALBANY, N. Y., JUNE 10.-Between five and six anndred Fenians arrived in this city from Ma one this evening. They were furnished transportation to this point by the Government. They belong to New York and Baltimore. They have no money and no arrangements have teen made to give them tran portation.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., JUNE 10 .- Three car loads of returning Fenians passed here on yesterday's trains.

An extra train with about four hundred more went South this morning. They have neither money nor food. Many more are coming to morrow. None are going North.

WORCESTER, MASS., JUNE 10 .- Sixty Fenians, un der the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Trainer. arrived by special train from St. Albans to-night. They were met at the depot by a large crowd, who welcomed them home.

Boston, June 10.+A special train from St. Albans arrived late last night, and another this afternoon, bringing altogether about 1,5:0 Fenians home from the Vermout border. All who had crossed the Cana dian line, except a few stragglers, are included in these arrivals. Transportation was furnished by the United States Government. The Fenian war is ended in that direction for the present.

DETROIT, JUNE 10 .- The schooner Dickinson, from Chicago, came down the river this morning, flying the Fenian flag. She was brought to and examined by the cutter Shorman. None but the crew were found aboard.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 9.—The examination of W. W. Hovan, before the United States District Court, closed to-lary. Jurge Treat decided to hold the gentleman in $5,000 Loui for a probable violation of the neutrality law. The case of A. L. Morrison, of Chicago III., was then commenced.

MONTREAL, JUNE 9TH. 9 P. M .- A: this writing. everything is and has been quiet at the front during the day. The Royals, one of the test volunteer corps in the Province, left this afternoon for the front. Ten thousand people witnessed their depart ture from the station. Dispatches (9.3) P. M.) just from the front, state that there a general retreat of the Fenlans, and that those at Albans are surrendering their arms to the United States authorities by order of Gen. Sweeper.

From Europe Three Dave Later News

The steamship Allemania, from Southampton en the 30th of May, arrived at this port early yesterday

The Cunard emigrant steamer Maita. which left Liverpool on the afternoon of the 29th and Queens town on the 30th of May, has also arrived here.

THE EUROPEAN CRISIS. There are but few fresh rumors respecting the pro posed Conference and progress of military prepara-tions. The replies of the armed Powers to the invitations of the neutral ones were expected in a few days.

A Berlin dispatch of May 28th sare:—"It is not intended that the Conference to be held at Paris shall discuss questions telerring to the reform of the Federal Constitution. The representation of the Dietat the Conference was considered necessary. A territorial modification affecting the Germanic Confederation may be discussed in connection with the Schleswigs-Roisstein, Limiturg and Venetian questions and the proposals for territorial compensations. It is said that a Bavaian minist or will represent the Dietat the Conference, but the opening sixting with not separate proposals for the proposal string with not separate proposals for the proposals island of Sardinia. We are bound to declare that these suppositions are false in every point. The French Gevernment has entered into no engagements of any kind with foreign Powers."

A Brussels telegram in the London Monative Poer says that "the French Government is still enseavoring to overcome the opposition of the British tower much for the proposal of an armed neutrality, in order to encore by arms in case of need the deliberations of the Conference."

order to enforce by arms in case of need the deliberations of the Conference."

The PALL MALL GAZPTIT sais: "We hear from Paris that the fleets at Chericours and Breat received orders last week to be ready to go to sea at the first summons. Certain hims which have been dropped lately at the French Minister of Marine lead to the suspicion that they will have to go the Black Sea subset has to the Adriatic, and that they will be accompanied by a British squadron."

It is stated from Vienna that, no to the 27th of Mars, the Austrian Government had mobilized 600,000 men, Roboto of whom are intended to meet the event of war with Pursia, and 200,000 for service in Venetia. The Advance of the Austrian Army of the Neith tewards the Bohemian and Moravian frontiers, would be terminated in a few days.

The Aus rinars were said to be taking measures to enteanch thomselves in the celebrated "quantial aterial" and the summer of the Austrian and the summer of the Centain towns.

The Emperor of Austria, in reviewing the troops at Vienna, on the Vilh, said that the warlace endmission of the Austrian army was one of the great elements for the maintenance of peace, and would be equally beneficial in the event of war.

From Italy the offunction of any abstement in the armaments.

It was stated that the ordering of the second con-there is no indication of any abstement in the almaments.

It was stated that the ordering of the second conscription for 1866, in Venice, had produced great popular discontent throughout Venetia.

Rumons were current at Triestes that a Turkish fleet of 30-hips had ente ed the Adrianc.

The Commicra of lavaria and Sysons had been opened by their respective Kings in person. Both monarcis asserted that they were doing all in their place for the maintenance of peace—and had resort ed to military prepara jons that they might be easily to de end the honor of their countries and maintain the H₂hts of the Federal Det.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The real contest in the Government reform bills commenced in the House of Commons on the 78th, when the motion to consolidate the two pending bills into one was sgreed to.

Sir R. Knightly moved that it be an instruction to Sir R. Knightly moved that it be an instruction to the Committee that they have power to make provision for the better prevention of bithery and corrup ion at elections.

Aft. Gla. some opposed the motion, and urged that it should be roussidered as a secarate measure.

After a debate, during which Mr. Bright denounced the motion as bitconed to elect the Retorm bill, a division took place and the motion was carried by 245 against has. Manority against loss. Manority against government, 10.

Aft. Gladrone satirically and town billens would wait to the clauses which he supposed Sir R. Knightly had pleared, but he loady lockned the government would not either easy or endanger the measure to meet his views.

Cappain Hayler then moved a resolution objecting to the scheme for grouping together sundry boroughs, and declaring that the government proposition was not sufficiently matured to form the basis of a satisfactory me sare. A general cabute ensued, which was ultimately adjourned thill the list.

The Morning HERALD says the Chillan Minister to London had demanded his passports. The British Governmen is said to have offended both beiliger Spain is incensed at Mr. Layard's language, and Child is indignant at being left to the lurch at the eleventh hour.

Gen. Besuregard was meeting with a warm reception in Liverpool. His mission to England is to promote certain railroad interests in the South. He visited the Livelpool Exchange on Monday, where, his presence becoming known, great interest was excited and the news room rapidly filled. He was appaused on leaving, and consumerable numbers of beople followed him through the streets.

On the 26.h May, in celebration of the Queen's birthday, the Cabinet Ministers all gave banquets in London as usual upon the occasion. Mr. Adams and the heads of the diplomatic body were present at that given by the Earl or Clarendon, Annaster for Foreign Affairs. At liverpoot the Mayor gave a Lauquet in London of the day to the to eight Consuls, the local officials, &c. Mr. Dudley, U. S. Consul, spoke for the Consulace body, and in the course of his remarks expressed an earnest desire for perpetual friendship between England and America.

LONDON MONEY MARKET-ANOTHER BANK PATIETRS The principal feature in the financial world was the announcement by the directors of the "Consoli dated Bank" of London, on the morning of the 28th dated Bank" of London, on the morning of the 28th of May, that they had resolved to close their doors. This bank recently underrook certain liabilities of the sussended "Bank of London," but has the arrangement powed mastissactor; and led to difficulties, it was could necessary to adopt the step taken. The directors, in their notice of sustendion, say that "part from the arringement with the Bank of London, the Consondated Bank was financially so strong that no difficulty would have been experienced in confucting its operations, and the directors have now in their hands the whole of the assets of this bank, in an almost immediately available form." The action of the Consondated Bank is very generally occurred to the Consondated Bank is very generally of the Consondated Bank is very generally occurred to the Consondated Bank is very general to the Consondated Bank is very general to the Consondated Bank is very

SPAIN.

Senor Bermudez de Castro, Minister for Foreign Mairs, had addressed a circular to the Spanish representatives abrond explaining the grounds of the bembardment of Valparaiso. The Minister asseria that Spain has always been really to sign an honor-able peace.

THE BRAZILS

A division of the Brazilian army disembarked on the 16th of April upon the left bank of the Parana An engagement took place on the following day re sulting in the defeat of the Paraguayans, who were compelled to abandon Stapia and their batteries on suiting in the cereator the Paraguayana, who corrected to abadom Stapia and their batteries on the Parana. Lopez burned his camp and retreated upon riumshitta, on the 25d. By way of Busnot Ayeres it is saied the Paraguayana have been repulsed on the Island of Carvatho, with a loss of 70th Killed and many prisoners. Forty simed fits were captured and Fort Itapice was raised to the ground the contraction of the production of STILL LATER.

Arrival of the Hibernia

FARTGER POINT, SUNDAY, JUNE 10 .- The steam ship Hibe: nia, from Londonderry, June 1st, has THE ECROPEAN CRISTS.

Telegrams from various points confirm the state Telegrams from various points.

Telegrams from various points.

Telegrams from various points.

Telegrams from various points.

Telegrams from various points. the invitation to the Conference. A come the Federal Diet has also resolved to accept the invisation given to the German Confederation to the Conference, and would probably elect Baron Von Der Pfordien, the Bavarian Minister for Foreign Affairs. st their representative. Communications were being interchanged for arranging a day for the first meeting. It is stated that the different Ministers of Foreign Affairs would represent their respective Governments. Various conflicting statements were made as to the programme for the Conference and the terms of acceptance of the arms powers. It is asserted that Austria estagorically refuses all proposition are relative to the cession of Vonetia; that an ealls for the convocation of the Estates of the Duchies to settle the Schleswig-Hoistein question, and demands that the Congress shall not be competent to duches any proposition reform of the Federal Constitution. Plusian is also said to demand that the Conference shall not discuss questions rotative exclusively to the internal interests of Germany, and that it shall speedly prove that a real prospect exists for the procedure the Congress the Duck of the French Government Inviting the Federal Diet to send a representative to the Congress of the Conscience to be a diplomatic softeness of the Conscience to be a diplomatic softeness of the Conscience to be a diplomatic softeness, and also of Federal reform, so far as it affects the European equilibrium. The note concludes as follows: "The government of the European equilibrium. The note concludes as follows: "The government of the European for war will, if they accept the proposed conference, suspend their armanents, even if they should scruple to restore their ministry establishments to a peace footing."

A Berlin telegram of the Slat says: as their representative. Communications were be

A Berlin telegram of the 31st says:
Prussia, in her reply to the invite ference, accedes to the desire expressed in the letter of invitation, that the armed powers should not make further military movements during its deliberations.

There is no indication of a relexation in warlike preparations. Many thousands of men are already engaged on the fortifications of Vienna.

A telegram from Kiel reports an affair between Austrian and Prussian troops. No deaths occurred.

An official inquiry had been instituted.

As official inquiry had been instituted.

It is stated that a communication received in Lordon ont the lotth, asserts that Garibaidi was still take his island of Captera and had no immediate intention of leaving it.

The Austrian Government had ordered a forced loan of twelve millions of florins in Lombardo and Venetia.

It is asserted in the Berlin Journals that Austria was in treaty with a Polish leader who distinguished himself in the Polish insurrection, with a view of pacence him at the head of a revolution in Prussian reland.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The House of Commons had debated Mr. Cloves bill conferring the elective franchise on any person of fit education. No action was taken.

The Dublin police had arrested five persons, sepposed to be active Fenians, and to have assisted Ste phens in baffling the detectives.

The British trade returns for April show the value of the exports to be over three and a quarter millions sterling in excess of April of last year Financial affairs continued to exhibit a steady pregress in recovery, and a gradual return of confidence. The pressure for discount at the Bank was diminishing, although it was still extremely large, and the rate remained at ten per cent.

II. J. Enthover & Son, of London, principally emgaged in the metal trade, had suspended; liabilities nearly £30,000; assets believed to be ample.

An explosion of fireworks in a factory at Aubia-France, killed twenty and injured fifteen persons.

Latest Commercial.

LIVERPOOL, June 1.—COTTON.—The Broker's circular reports the sales of the week at $5,000 bases. The market has been buoyant, and prices are 1dal's digher for American, and Saleid higher for other descriptions.

SYATE OF TRADE.—The Manchester market is quiet, and the improvement of Tuesday is basely maintained. Breassings are dull and prices easier, Provisions dull and unchanged.

LONDON, June 1.—Consons closed at $75,287%.

L. S. Pive-Twenties, 66'930. Eric shares, 42%6 40%, Illinois Centrals, 78a79.

Mexico.

News via New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, JUNE 9 .- There have been two Vera Cruz arrivals, with dates to the 3d of June. The Liberals had advanced and captured 25 colonels, of late United States robels. The Liberals were led by a New Orleans Creole. The captured were held for ten thousand dollars ransom. The Liberals claim that Maximilian was without authority to great lands. The French have promised assistance, but the prisoners have been held already eighteen days.

News via Washington.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 10 .- Count Reseignier, whe recently visited this city, is a member of Maximilian's household and Assistant Secretary of the Navy, although a great portion of his time has been spent in the United States as Maximilian's contidential and chief agent. It has already been stated that a few days ago, at a dinner party in Washington, be took occasion to speak in approbation of Maximilian. but was rebuked by prominent members of Congress present.

the City of Mexico, from which it appears that General Bazine assembled all the French officers in that city and informed them that Napoleon bad decided to withdraw the French army from Mexice; but at the same time he would grant leave to samy offices who would like to take service under Maximilian in the Foreiron Legion to do so. He esteed that they would be promoted to the next rank, it is said the officers has a consultation and decided to decline this overture. The Austrians were defended in battle at a town in the State of Oaxaca.

Mr. A. Manachai, a young brother of the Secretary of the Mixican Legation at Washington, was arrested and sent on foot from the City of Mexico to Que etaro, with a file of widders. He was hande culfed. His only offence consisted of receiving glistier from his prother. city and informed them that Napoleon had decided General Intelligence.

(By Mail to the New York Sun)

The steamer Worcester sailed hence yesterda, afternoon for Liverpool with a full cauge. The cholers has entirely disappeared from Liverpool.

A chicken with two heads, two bills and three eyes was born at Hartford on Saturday.

It is the Hon, Joshus Hill, the Union leader of Georgia, who has been made Collector of the Port of Savanuah.

remain in Texas, the Nineteenth and the numbering altogether about 1,200 men. Major General Treet, commanding the De-artment of Virginia, has ordered that all troops withdrawn from Charlotteville.

"IP you wish to appear agreeable in society," says Talleyrand, "you must consent to be taugist many things which you know already."

The new Sunday law was, if possible, more rigidly enforced at Baltimore, yesterday, than the previous Sunday. The drinking saloons, concert halls, &c., were all obliged to close.

A TELTLE lately found at Bloomfield, Co., had upon its shell two inscriptions, one cut in 1793 and abother in 1817. The veteran is probably a hum-

Six hundred English emigrants, bound for Mor-mondom, where they are to become Brigham Young's disciples, were in New Haven on Wed-

Gov. Dillingham of Vermont, says that he bound as soon think or calling out the Vermont in hit to put down a Quaker meeting, as to meddle rith the Fenlans

Tax ladies of Taliahassie, Fla., recently held a sir, and raised $2,300 to enable Major Gee—12 rial at Raleigh, N. C., on a charge of crucky to ederal prisoners—to defend binneif. A GILL at Rockland, Me., got up the other night in a fit of somnambulism, and cut off half of her flowing locks. She didn't know herself next

" WELL, Bridget, if I engage you, I shall web

you to stay at home whenever I want to go out."
"Well, ma'am, I have no objection, providin' you do the same when I wish to go out." WM. PRESCOTT, of New Haven, fell down stairs the other night and broke his leg. It was the third repetition of the same accident within thirteen

It is said that four thousand whigs have been ordered for Canadian use, in consequence of the hair frightened from the heads by the Fenius scarce.

scare.

A GRAND national banquet has been given at Limain honor of the victory of the Peruvians over the invadors. The affair is said to have been magnificent, and during the evening the greatest barroomy nevalled.

ony prevailed. Naws from Idaho states that the Indians attacked fity Chiusmen near Ownhee River, killing forty-nine of them, and stealing several trains of horses and mules, and sixty head of cattle right is sight of the fort.

In 1956, when the yellow favar winter